NGC Celebrates the NAAATT

NGC congratulates the National Association of Athletics Administrations of Trinidad & Tobago (NAAATT), winner of the Jeffrey Stollmeyer Award at the First Citizens Sport Foundation Awards 2019. The NAAATT's initiatives and administration of the sport truly demonstrate a sterling commitment to securing the success of our athletes.

We also celebrate the achievement of Shaniqua Bascombe, winner of the Junior Sports Woman of the Year and member of the NGC Youth Elite Programme, and wish her continued advancement both on and off the track.

NGC is pleased to commemorate the success of the NAAATT and we look forward to facilitating continued strides in the development and upliftment of our nation's athletes.
