The Public's Right to Access Information under the Freedom of Information Act relating to NGC and its Operations

FOIA Public Statement 2021

The Freedom of Information Act, Chap. 22:02 ("the Act") gives members of the public:

1. A legal right to access information held by a public authority (as defined in the Act).
2. A legal right to have official information relating to him/her amended where it is incomplete, incorrect or misleading.
3. A legal right to obtain reasons for adverse decisions made regarding an applicant's request for information under the Act.
4. A legal right to refer matters to the Ombudsman and to apply to the High Court for Judicial Review to challenge adverse decisions made under the Act.

The National Gas Company of Trinidad and Tobago Limited ("NGC") is required by virtue of the Act, to publish certain information for the benefit of the public. This includes information regarding the structure and functions of NGC and a list of the categories of documents held by NGC. It also requires NGC to identify those documents which are eligible/available for public access under the Act and sets out how to obtain the same.

The following information satisfies the legislative requirements of the Act and is an Updated Public Statement pursuant to Section 7(1)(b) of the Act.

The following information has been approved by the Minister of Energy and Energy Industries.

Effect of Scope of Business on Members of the Public

The Vision and Mission of NGC and its main operating subsidiaries are as follows:

Vision: To be recognised as a global leader in the development of sustainable energy-related businesses.

Mission: To create exceptional value from the natural gas and related energy businesses through our people and strategic partnerships.

The Core Values of The NGC Group, which guide its business practices and activities are as follows:

- Integrity
- Employee Engagement
- Excellence
- Safety and Environmental Preservation
- Transparency
- Customer Focus
- Corporate Social Responsibility

NGC creates national value for Trinidad and Tobago through its activities along the natural gas value chain. A value chain is a chain of activities that processes raw material through a number of intermediate stages to a marketable end product. However, in the course of its business, NGC does not normally deal directly with members of the general public in relation to the formulation of policy in, or the administration of, the Public Authority. NGC's activities may however potentially impact individuals through the social value of the value chain (i.e. job creation, skills development and positive impact on communities and NGC's CSR activities).

(5) SECTION 7(1) (a) (v)

Procedure to be followed to access official documents under the Act

How to request information

1. Requests for public documents and public services under the Act will be entertained between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. Monday to Friday (except on public holidays).
2. All requests for access to documents that are not readily available in the public domain are to be made, in writing, on the Request for Access to Official Documents(s) Form (pursuant to Section 13 of the Act) that is available from the Designated Officer or Alternate Designated Officer or from the FOI Unit, Ministry of Communications at their website: www.foia.gov.tt
3. Queries for amendments to documents containing personal information about the applicant are to be directed to the Designated Officer or Alternate Designated Officer, in writing, in the form of a letter.
4. To ensure prompt handling of requests, please address all requests to the Designated Officer or Alternate Designated Officer of NGC. Contact information for the Designated Officer or Alternate Designated Officer is always available on NGC's website.
5. Requests will be acknowledged as official only when made on the prescribed form.
6. Applicants must provide sufficient information to enable the Designated Officer or Alternate Designated Officer to identify the document(s) being requested.
7. The general policy is to answer all requests for information, both oral and written, in like manner. However, in order to derive the rights given to the applicant under the Act (for example the right to challenge a decision if the request for information is refused), the applicant must make such requests for information in writing (and these will be the only requests viewed as official requests under the Act).

FOIA Public Statement 2021

8. If insufficient information is provided regarding the information being requested, clarification will be sought from the applicant.
9. If the applicant is not sure how to write his/her request or what details to include therein, prior communication with the Designated Officer or Alternate Designated Officer, or the FOI Unit, Ministry of Communications, at their website: www.foia.gov.tt is recommended.
10. A request under the Act will not be processed to the extent that it asks for information which is readily available to the public, either from this public authority or from another public authority, for example, by way of brochures, reports, etc. Where possible, the applicant will be directed to these public sources.

Time Permitted

1. Applicants will be notified within thirty (30) calendar days or before whether or not their request is approved. Requests may also be partially approved.
2. Applicants whose requests are incomplete or unclear will be informed of the same by the Designated Officer or Alternate Designated Officer who will make arrangements to consult with the applicant, with a view to clarifying the request.
3. The time limit of thirty (30) days will be suspended while consultation with the applicant is being undertaken and will resume on the day the applicant confirms or alters the request.
4. An applicant whose request for documents is refused will be notified, in writing, of the reasons for refusal. The applicant will be informed of alternative recourses that are open to him/her in light of the refusal.
5. Subject to the above item 3, if NGC fails to meet the thirty (30)-day deadline, the Act gives the applicant the right to proceed as though his/her request has been denied.
6. If it appears that processing the applicant's request may take longer than the thirty (30)-day statutory limit, NGC will acknowledge the receipt and advise the applicant of its status and may request a formal extension of time to deliver the requested information (which must be approved by the applicant).
7. Since there is a possibility that requests may be incorrectly addressed or misdirected, the applicant may wish to call or write to confirm that the Designated Officer or Alternate Designated Officer has received the request and to ascertain its status.
8. NGC will count the delivery date of the request as the date it was received by mail or the date it was delivered to the Designated Officer or Alternate Designated Officer via e-mail.

Fees and Charges

1. Section 17(1) stipulates that no fee shall be charged by a public authority for the making of a request for access to an official document. However, where access to an official document is to be given in the form of printed copies, or copies in some form such as a tape, disk, film or other material, the applicant shall pay the prescribed fee incurred for duplication of the said material.
2. Details of charges for duplication of documents will be determined based upon individual requests by applicants.
3. Applicants will be required to complete an official company invoice before funds are paid to the cashier.
